

SHINE

Solar Helping Ignite Neighborhood Economies (SHINE) will place community solar at the nexus of workforce development and community empowerment in disadvantaged communities in Greater Boston. Our work, when successful, should be replicable by others in communities across the nation.

Grow wages by training community members as solar technicians and placing them in good solar jobs.

Build at least one megawatt of community solar and keep the benefits local

Templatize contracting language and program materials for dissemination via NCSP

www.rare.org