

TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE REQUEST (2 pages, including images, will be made public)

Currently in need of developer support from National Renewable Energy Laboratory Developer Network to communicate with their web services API.

In due course, there will be a need for web based API level partnerships with regional electricity providers and green energy equipment providers to access their plans/costs/capabilities in exchange for user provided requests and subscriptions.