

Emission Zero

While the Electric Vehicles add up to maximum of 400 miles range in a charging periode. Aside from public charging terminals, rapid electric pullout stations are required along the State Highways. The rapid electric pullout stations should be built with increment of 50-100 miles along the Highway postmile. Rapid electric pullout stations strength the capability of electric vehicles and reduce carbon emission from transportation sector.