

Holistic Energy Solutions for Disadvantaged Communities

Closing the Gap Between Rural Energy Challenges and Modern Technical Solutions

Team Name: Alaska Center ICE

Project Description: Our community, business, and research partners are collaborating on a holistic approach to rural and disadvantaged energy challenges. We are addressing technical and societal challenges while bridging the gap to rapidly advancing research.

Video: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=W-2Ebqd3gAU>

Key Individuals: Mark Billingsley, Center ICE, mcbillingsley@alaska.edu, profile
Dayne Broderson, ACEP, dbbroderson@alaska.edu, profile

Key Partners: Cordova and Kotzebue, Alaska
Teaching Through Technology (T3)
Pacific Northwest innovators and entrepreneurs - "Cleantech track"

City and State: Fairbanks, Alaska
Cordova, Alaska
Kotzebue, Alaska
Pacific Northwest, US

Inclusive Energy Innovation Prize